San Bernardino County Welcomes New County Administrative Officer

New leader possesses expertise needed to address challenging economic environment

SAN BERNARDINO, CA – Today, Supervisor Neil Derry voted to hire Greg Devereaux as the new County Administrative Officer.

“Devereaux’s redevelopment expertise, demonstrated track record of creating economic expansion and intimate knowledge of the region is an ideal fit that will serve the people well,” Supervisor Derry said. “His name is synonymous with success.”

San Bernardino County is facing a myriad of challenges and opportunities in the years to come. Combined with Sacramento’s repeated bungling of state finances, there will be tremendous pressure placed upon our finances as the state attempts to raid our bank account to paper over their mistakes.

Chairman Gary Ovitt has wisely recognized the importance of selecting a talented leader on an expedited timeframe given the multitude of factors facing our county and he is to be commended for shepherding this process, Derry said.
